Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.A 12-year-old girl is the desperate focus of three men—John, a dedicated young teacher searching for vigilante justice, Charlie, a small-time private detective with a checkered past, and Steven, a top mafia narcotics importer. Their paths cross when John makes a shocking, vengeful move to save his eighth-grade students from the Detroit's vicious drug wars, Steven's young daughter goes missing, and Charlie, hired to find her, confronts a moral dilemma that will change all their lives. Tightly plotted and action packed, this second book of The Detroit Im Dyin Trilogy is a powerful urban crime thriller laced with noir secrets and murder. Its furious final chapters spin a kidnapping scheme so bizarre that it just might work. If you like Elmore Leonard, you'll love these books. --Victoria Best, Tales from the Reading Room LoCicero's knowledge of his city and the people that live there are remarkable. The dying city in Michigan is alive on the pages of his evolving trilogy. --Patrick, Amazon Reviewer This is a powerful read that handles sensitive and important...
