There are many reasons why the standardization of tank hoops would be advantageous, chief of which is the conservation of steel; not that the standard hoop would require less steel to maintain the required fibre stress on the hoop but that it would allow the manufacturers to carry less stock to fill orders. On a recent visit to the plant of a large tank manufacturer it was found that he had on hand material to supply hoops for perhaps 30 or 40 tanks representing a dozen different hoop standards yet he could not ship two sets that were badly needed until steel was received from the mill to make up the particular type of hoop required. The standardization of tank hoops should have a tendency to lower the cost of manufacture and insure better deliveries and would, no doubt,...
