Excerpt: . the children are not immediately associated with adult paupers, a plan which is just a little less objectionable than keeping- both classes in the same building. The statistics on this point in the census of 1900 will be awaited with interest. Contrary to the general opinion, the States in which there were still large numbers of children in almshouses in 1890 are not confined to the south. In fact, as shown by the following table, the sixteen States which are the worst offenders in this regard include ten of the sixteen States which comprised the Union in 1801: Number Of Ch1ldren Between Two And Sixteen Years Of Age In Almshouses, To Every 100.000 Of The General Populat1on. 1900.
