

The Creamy Kind

By Allen, Spencer

Scrybe Press, 2005. Trade Paperback. Condition: New. First - First Edition. 1933274018 32-page saddle-stapled chapbook; There are two things that Ted has always remembered about Dilbert. The first is how much Dilbert liked peanut butter--the thick, oily stuff, eaten straight out of the jar. The second is how he bullied him, forcing Ted to gag down the nutty spread as the other boys laughed and jeered. Ted learned to ignore the taste and fight the madness as the peanut butter coated the roof of his mouth, refusing to work loose no matter how hard he scraped with his tongue or his fingernails. Or a screwdriver. And, after all, he got Dilbert back, didn't he?.
