We ll rent a set of pictures to a school for eight dollars a week. That s pretty cheap, isn t it? You couldn t hire much of a teacher for eight dollars a week, could you? And then think of the saving--you won t need any truant officer. No, siree! Every little toddler in the district will just want to scoot to school! --William Inglis, in Harper s Weekly. DID YOU EVER? Did you ever try to sell your goods in Germany? Did you ever hear that Germany has a population of over sixty-five million? Did you ever realize that these sixty-five million of people are great buyers? Did you know that some of the biggest American firms are doing a rattling good business in Germany? Did you ever stop to think that labor-saving machinery is eagerly bought in Germany? Did you ever hear that American machinery has revolutionized several branches of German manufacture? Did you ever know that the Germans are like the Athenians of old, always looking after something new? Did you ever try to exploit the German market? Did you know that the Germans are larger buyers of American machinery and American made goods than all other Europeans? Did you ever hear of the American Association of Commerce and Trade, Berlin? Did you ever hear that this association was organized primarily for the promotion of American trade with Germany? If you have not heard of, nor done, any of these things,...
