Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from The Social and Intellectual State of England, Compared With Its Moral Condition: A Sermon Delivered in St. John s Catholic Church, Salford, on Sunday, July 28th, 1850 Besides the direct and severe application of them made by our blessed Redeemer Himself, these words are naturally suggestive to us of many other purposes, tending particularly to repress all prideful thoughts, when we are inclined to judge ourselves by comparison with others. And this is the case, not merely when we are pleased to contrast ourselves as individuals with individuals; but also when this comparison is made by classes or states of men, as if the rich should compare themselves with the poor, or the poor with the rich, or nation with nation, or age with age. And, my brethren, if there be any one danger that more especially belongs to the time and to the country in which we live, it lies in this; that we see ourselves so surrounded by whatever may seem to indicate a superior development of social and intellectual qualities; we have...
