Summary: At the Home for the Dying in Calcutta, Mother Teresa often cared for residents as they approached the end. As she ministered to one illness-ravaged man, a visitor overheard her whisper a few words to him. These simple words embody some of Mother Teresa's most profound wisdom. She said, "You say a prayer in your religion, and I will say a prayer as I know it. Together we will say this prayer and it will be something beautiful for God." These gentle words of solace and care provide a glimpse of a Mother Teresa that is often overlooked: Mother Teresa, the universal teacher of prayer. With this deeply profound and exceptionally approachable collection, she offers guidance and inspiration for people of all faiths -- Catholics, Protestants, disenchanted Christians, non-Christians, and unaffiliated spiritual seekers -- seeking to walk a spiritual path.
