MEDICINE: A TRADE OR A PROFESSION? DIMIDIUM facti, qui c pit, habei. He who hath begun, hath half done. Oh, that beginning! There s the rub which makes calamity . and yet, on the other hand, there are many folk who make numerous beginnings yet never finish their tasks. Well, thank heaven, I ve begun! Shall I ever finish? Certainly I would do the job quite properly if there was someone at my bedside in the early morning to take down my waking thoughts in shorthand. What fine chapters I write then How quickly are ideas, such splendid ideas, spun on the loom of my brain! From lack of a recording angel, what magnificent conceptions are lost to the world then! For a long time I have intended to write something about Doctors and Doctoring, Past, Present, and Future. Health is the most important thing to us all, individually and nationally. Disease is our most deadly and most powerful foe; and if the units do not enjoy good health, the...
