New Generation Publishing, United Kingdom, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 210 x 148 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Remove the computer chips lodged in your brain before they convince you that you ve gone insane.Take a bite out of reality instead of becoming a reality byte. Reality, Bits, Bytes and Chips is a collection of poems, short stories, podcasts and a play East End Spices. Kitty is a creative and sentient writer who has been able to weave persuasive and expository elements into her descriptive and narrative work. Using a wide range of creative styles she unashamedly explores sensitive issues from different perspectives and the result is sometimes surprisingly humorous but always thought provoking. Kitty Clairmont has a Bachelor of Arts Honours degree in English Literature and Language from the Open University. She has worked with many different people both young and not so young with many differing levels and talents. What captured and intrigued her was the need for uplifting words and encouragement that everyone needs, in order to learn, grow and endure. Kitty writes poetry and fiction which is based on life experience. She has lived in London all her life with her family and three children and continues to try and uplift and help others through her writing. Why not visit the author s website to see what inspires her writing?.
