Down on his luck in San Francisco, John Slocum takes a contract with the Central California Railroad. He s given the difficult task of locating a stolen shipment of silver worth over one hundred thousand dollars, but he catches a break when he discovers that the company s attractive secretary, Tamara, was an accomplice in the robbery. Too bad his employer would rather believe in the thief s feminine wiles than in Slocum s cold hard facts. Fuming mad and out of work, Slocum starts looking to let off some steam. But when Tamara offers Slocum a new job--finding where the rest of the robbers stowed the loot--he has a hard time saying no to the seductive crook, or to a change of fortune. Still, Slocum knows he has to keep his cards close to the chest, or else he might end up six feet under.
